

Dear Animal Lovers,

This was Jim's first fish rescue. February is the "love month" and as the Animal Lover's Real Estate Agent™ Jim knew that the fish left in a foreclosed property needed help. A call to the local humane society connected him to PETCO. Jim used the only available tool to catch the fish—a cat litter scoop—and brought the tired little goldfish to the store where it was transferred to a fish rehab and rescue tank. A happy ending.

It's important to be aware of community resources for abandoned and abused animals. Know the hours and surrender guidelines for area shelters, have contact information for emergency veterinary services, and go to Petfinder.com for specific breed and species rescues. Keep the information in your wallet or phone for the next time an animal in need finds you.

February is National Bird Feeding Month but you can go to our website at www.AmericaHelpsAnimals.com and follow the turtle to many more animal dates. For quotes that express love and concern for animals click on our dog, Holly, on the homepage and warm your heart.

Thanks to everyone who visits AmericaHelpsAnimals.com. Don't forget to share the love by forwarding the site to your animal-loving friends.

Thanks for all you do for animals.

Jim, Joanne, Holly (the dog) and Lovey (the alpha cat)
